

LOCAL EVENTS, WHO TO FOLLOW

EVENTS
Heavy Chef	Heavy Chef is a learning platform for entrepreneurs through inspirational events and empowering workshops. Events are held monthly in Cape Town.
Startup Grind Cape Town	Startup Grind is a global start-up community, and the Cape Town chapter runs monthly events that highlights the success and failure of startups in Cape Town.
Future Females Cape Town	Future Females is a movement to inspire more female entrepreneurs, and better support their success.
AfricArena	AfricArena Summit is an annual conference in November that showcases Africa's best startups and innovators in front of an audience of international and local investors looking for world-class talent.
SA Innovation Summit	The SA Innovation Summit is an annual conference in November. The Summit provides various platforms for developing and showcasing African innovation, as well as facilitating thought-leadership.
Africa Tech Week	Africa Tech Week is a technology conference, an exhibition and a Technology Awards Ceremony.

NEWSLETTERS/ WHO TO FOLLOW

VentureBurn	VentureBurn has a regular newsletter with start-up and technology news from across the country and local events.
Silicon Cape	Silicon Cape share ecosystem news from their members and upcoming opportunities/ events for entrepreneurs and investors in the local tech ecosystem
Heavy Chef	Sign up for the Heavy Chef newsletter to receive their latest podcasts and articles.
UCT GSB Bertha Centre for Social Innovation & Entrepreneurship	The Bertha Centre provides government, private investors, donors and NPOs with advice and support on impact investing, creating pathways to funding and growing social enterprises. They have a regular newsletter that highlights industry news, events and workshops.
Knife Capital Quona Capital Goodwell Investments SAVCA Wesgro	Follow these prominent VC companies and organisations on LinkedIn (links included here).